

Intermediate Apprentice of the Year Jack Baybutt

A West Lancashire College Apprentice has recently been voted Intermediate Apprentice of the Year!

Business Apprentice Jack Baybutt is employed as an Apprentice Legal Cashier at The Cashroom Ltd in White Moss Business Park. The Cashroom Ltd provides outsourced cashiering services to law firms throughout the U.K.

Jack a former Stanley High School Pupil said “I am really proud to have achieved this award. It was a surprise to be nominated and an even bigger surprise to win. I have a fantastic working relationship with all my colleagues at The Cashroom Ltd and I am receiving excellent training. I receive support and encouragement from my West Lancashire College Assessor who ensures I am on track to achieve my Apprenticeship. It is nice to be recognised. I would definitely recommend studying for an Apprenticeship qualification as the career opportunities and prospects are vast”
